

Art Melt 2010 Competiton

Forum 35 has started to accept submissions for the 7th annual Art Melt: A Fusion of Art, Music and Forum 35 showcasing Louisiana artists. Artists must be 18 or older and must reside in Louisiana. Last year, this juried art show drew more than 600 submissions and 10,000 attendees. This year's event, to be held at the Louisiana State Museum in downtown Baton Rouge, is poised to be just as successful. All selected works will be on display for six weeks and available for purchase. Prizes will be awarded for first place ($2,000), second place ($1,000) and third place ($500).

Artists are able to submit their entries and pay entry fees online via this link If you do not already have a call for entry artist account, there is no fee to create one. Information regarding fees, deadlines, rules and eligibility is available at artmelt.org as well as details on the juried competition, event and lists of previous Art Melt selections. Should you need immediate assistance, please e-mail us enter@artmelt.org. This free, public event is made possible through the generous support of our donors and the volunteer and leadership efforts of Forum 35, a Baton Rouge-based nonprofit dedicated to improving overall quality of life in the city and state. Proceeds from Art Melt will benefit all arts projects of Forum 35. To learn more about Forum 35, please visit forum35.org

The annual Forum 35 Art Melt will take place from 6-10pm on Friday, July 16 at the Louisiana State Museum in downtown Baton Rouge. The works selected for the show will hang in the Louisiana State Museum in Downtown Baton Rouge for 6 weeks. We are excited this new, larger space will allow us to nearly double our exhibition space.

This year's call for entry is professionally coordinated through callforentry.org. Below is a link to their site. If you do not already have an account, it is free and simple to set up.
